On Wednesday September 3, 2014 a live call to artists was created on Facebook by the Art's Alive profile alerting Vermont Visual Artists that The first 50 artists to present 1-3 pieces at the Art's Alive Gallery at Main Street Landing's Union Station in Burlington on the evenings of Wednesday September 3, and Thursday September 4 between 7 and 8:30pm would secure a spot in the 4th Annual Facebook First 50 Exhibition to run September 5 until the Closing Reception on Thursday September 25.

Art's Alive is proud to be hosting its 4th Annual Facebook First 50 exhibition continuing a Burlington tradition dating back to the Pascal Spengemann era at BCA. First 50 is a democratic exhibition which provides a showcase for emerging amateur artists to exhibit their work alongside professional artists well into their post-emergent careers.

This exhibition will be open during the South End Art Hop on Friday September 5, 5-8pm and Saturday September 6, 12-4pm. There will be an Artist's Reception Thursday September 25 from 5-7pm at Union Station that is free and open to the public!
