Burlington College put out a call to writers, musicians, activists, graphic designers, painters, photographers and filmmakers for a Travel+Learn experience in Berlin. Berlin has become a cutting edge haven for emerging artists. It is a dynamic, progressive city that embraces the new while respecting its past. Berlin is home to the most innovative art on the international stage today. Our students travelled to unexpected places, multiple art openings, pop-up galleries and musical performances throughout their 8 day experience.

With new energy based in the grit, restlessness and experimental spirit of Berlin, our students have travelled abroad and are bringing Germany to Vermont with art inspired by their journey. The artworks cover a wide variety of media, but all are engaging, challenging and bring to life the experiences of the travelers.

Artist's Reception First Friday December 5, 5-8pm
