ESSEX ART LEAGUE SHOW & SALE

David Goodrich, Barn with Horses, Oil on Canvas

Artist's Reception Friday, April 10, 5-8pm!

Tired of winter? The members of Essex Art League would like to present you with a gift as they welcome the coming of spring. Come experience their exciting new art display at Union Station in Burlington during the month of April. Celebrate the arts as well as shop for that special gift as you browse through paintings & photographs offered by more than 40 artists. The show begins March 29 and will continue through May 2. You are cordially invited to attend the Grand Opening and Artist's Reception on April 10 from 5:00-8:00 pm at One Main Street Landing (Union Station). Come meet the artists, enjoy live music & refreshments, and learn the stories behind the artwork in this relaxed and inspiring environment.

Essex Art League was formed in 1972 by a group of local artists of all levels of experience who desired to share an appreciation of art and foster a close and caring art community. Essex Art League continues to grow and change with the times, as a visit to their website testifies. (see www.essexartleague.com) The website not only showcases their organization, but includes an online gallery by members and includes a fluid calendar of events. Meetings are open to anyone interested in the arts, and are held on the first Thursday of the month from September through June at the First Congregational Church in Essex Junction, VT from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. The meeting agenda includes a business and social time, and features a guest artist presentation. Some programs are interactive, allowing for spontaneous creativity. Other meetings provide opportunities for members to showcase and evaluate their work. Art enthusiasts of all levels of experience are invited to join this friendly monthly gathering.
